A regular meeting of the Republican National League will be held at the League Building Wednesday evening, March 28, 1888.
All members requested to be present. Republican senators and representatives will address the League.

E. F. BRAZEE, President.

EDWARD B. FOX, Secretary.

PTERODACTYL has been discovered in paying quantities in Egypt.

The extreme cold has seriously damaged the silk crop in France.

It is said that the German government is now adding Italy to secure money from German bankers.

New diamond mines have been discovered in South Africa which it is claimed surpass all previous discoveries in richness.

ADULTERATION is now practiced in the making of cod-liver oil. Some of the imported oils contain 50 percent of petroleum.
Congress should hasten its action against the adulteration of food and medicine. The man who is guilty of either should wear the stripes of the penitentiary.

GEORGE TAYLOR HUGHES, the 17-year-old American consul at Birmingham, has awarded a $2,000

is held by the people.

A PART OF Senator Cockrell's report on the investigation of the executive departments has been printed. This part covers 750 pages and only two copies have been printed for use of each senator. This is equally with a vengeance. Whoever is guilty of this species of economy should take lessons from Little Big Tom on the man's faceless stockings.

OUR CRITICAL CONTEMPORARY, the New York Sociey, "which shuns for all" with such boldness, ought not to speak of Frederick I, and R. as Frederick III. He is not Frederick III of Germany or Prussia, and does not so designate himself. His first official document was signed Frederick Q. II, that by mistake or carelessness was called Frederick III, but the Sociey ought not to follow so obvious an error.

THE DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE is nominated, The Democratic platform is agreed upon, and the campaign is now being made.

To meet this array of federal patronage, power, and strategy the American people devoted to American industries, American wage workers, and the American policy founded by Washington are called upon to organize in every school district where the battle is supreme to defeat this unholy and sinful combination of the free trade Democracy.

THE DECISION of the Supreme Court yesterday in the great telephone case was not unanimous, being 3 to 3 in favor of the Bell patent; but that will not modify its effect, and what is already one of the richest and most powerful monopolies in the world is immeasurably strengthened and firmly fixed for many years to come. It is not probable another case against the Bell company will be brought before the Supreme Court very soon, and even if it were the court would not reach it for a long time. People who think the telephone monopoly oppressive will find very little consolation in your treasury's decision.

THE CHICAGO ANARCHISTS are at it again.
They held a "Symposium Festival" Sunday at which Albert C. Smith made an impassioned speech in which he said: "Am I an anarchist? Let them strangle me if they dare." This sounds very much like some of the speeches that August Spies, another anarchist editor used to make, yet he was strangled last November along with several others of his style of thinking, and the world, including the city of Chicago, was along the even tenor of its way apparently undisturbed to any great extent. We suspect it would be much the same were Mr.
Smith strangled.

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN was presented to its readers yesterday in a complete new dress. True to its determination not to brag about what it is going to do, nothing has been said of this in advance, so determined is it to give its readers a first class Republican paper, worthy in its mechanical, news, and editorial departments of the capital of the nation, and of the great party whose interests it advocates, the NATIONAL REPUBLICAN pursues the even tones of its way, always up to the requirements of the time, determined to deserve and attain success without resorting to the bare trumpet to display excellencies which should speak for themselves.
